DATED : JULY 26, 2007

P.C. :-

. Heard the learned Counsel for the petitioner.

2. The original respondent has filed this review petition challenging the order passed by this Court dated 16th June, 2007 whereby the Rule was granted and interim relief in terms of prayer clause (b) was also granted after hearing the learned Counsel appearing on behalf of respondent no.1.

3. The learned Counsel appearing on behalf of respondent no.1 - the review petitioner herein submits that this order may be reviewed and that further direction may be given directing the management to hold an inquiry. He submitted that the services of the respondent were terminated without holding any inquiry. He submitted that the respondent was entitled to get 50% salary during the pendency of the inquiry.

4. It is not possible to accept the submission made by the learned Counsel for the petitioner. No ground is made out for reviewing the order which has been passed by this Court on 16th June, 2007. If the petitioner is aggrieved by the said order, he always has a right to prefer an appeal.
